DISSEMINATION NUMBERED

1. In July 1952, troops of the Chinese Communist 14 Army withdrew southward from their former positions in Yunnan along the northern Burma border. Troops of the Chinese Communist 18 Army have filled this gap; as of early November they were as far south as Weihsai (99-16, 27-12).
2. People on the China side of the Yunnan-Burma border are now afraid to discuss troop movements, and Chinese Communist security restrictions on this subject are very effective.
